

SOUTH FIVE NIPS NORTH IN FINAL TILT

Spartans Take 78-71 Victory From Saxons

CIF contender North High crumbled under the go-go onslaught of their cross town rival, South High, Friday night as South's Stieg blazed for 23 points leading the South pack to a 78-71 victory.

A nip and tuck ball battle scorched the boards during the first quarter with North grabbing a one point lead 17-16. South rallied during the second quarter and knocked off the one point lead ending the half all tied-up.

The third quarter saw South open up her go-go style and deliver a crushing 26-20 tally from which North never recovered.

South held a determined North in the last quarter by a one point margin 19-18 which gave them their 78-71 victory.

Rick Jacobs led North's scoring pace with 19 points. Sparky Davidson rang up 15 followed by Bob Mance's 14, Sam Edwards' 13, and Jack Golphenee's 6.

South's Stieg stole the spotlight away from high scorers Joe Austin and Mannix with a whopping 23 points. Austin garnered 19 followed by Andrews' 15, Delaporte's 10, and Mannix 9.

Fencing Club Issues Call For Lefties

Left-handed fencers are being sought by the Aguilas Fencing Club. The club hopes some left-handers will join the new beginners group starting Wednesday at North High School, 7:30-9:30 p.m., cosponsored by the Torrance Recreation Dept.

The advance class which started last year has collected an aggregate of eight medals in Southern California Competition in foil, epee, and saber. The youngest member of the advance class is 9-year-old Dave Mills, the oldest is a grandmother.

Members include students, housewives, and business and professional men. The Aguilas will be represented in International competition in July at the Statter Hilton, according to the instructor Lyle (Jeep) Lamont.

All those interested in fencing are asked to contact the Torrance Recreation Dept., FA 8-4108. The only fee is 50 cents a week which goes toward the purchase of the individual's own equipment.

Milk is a leading source of calcium essential for building bones and teeth, required for proper functioning of muscles and nerves, and the normal clotting of blood.

Culver City in 90-70 Win Over Tartar Five

What was anticipated to be the scoring duel of the season between Torrance's Bob Weister and Culver City's McFerson turned out to be a rather one-sided affair Friday in the Tartar's gym with the Culver City

Centaur's tromping the Tartars, 90-70.

Weister was the leading scorer in Pioneer League play with a 25.7 average per game. Close on his heels going into Friday's game was McFerson with an average of 24 points.

At the end of the first quarter Weister managed to wrangle only six points from the Centaurs and four of these were on free throws. McFerson, hot as a pistol, bucketed 10, leading the Centaurs to a healthy first quarter lead of 28-15.

LED BY Bill Roberts, the Tartars came back in the second quarter, scoring 23 digits while holding the Culver City five to 18 which narrowed the half-time score to 46-38 in favor of the Centaurs.

Sparked by the rebounding of their center, a strapping 6 ft. 5 in. cager by the name of Schipper who dominated the boards, the Centaurs came on in the third quarter and rolled up a 69-56 tally. Torrance's Mike Challis was hot in the third, racking up nine points which equaled the nine points scored by his teammates in that quarter.

WEISTER seemed to be having one of those nights when the ball was hitting the bucket everywhere but in. Through the first three quarters he was held to 12 points which for him is cold. Finally, after a pep talk by coach Will Boerger, Weister got in stride and in the final minutes of the game he could do no wrong. In these final minutes he rolled up nine points, hitting like he did in the Redondo game when he set the CIF individual scoring record.

It was clearly McFerson's game from start to finish. In the personal race for the leading scorer in the Pioneer League, McFerson beat Weister by rolling up 32 points in Friday's game, giving him a slight edge over Weister, who tallied 21 digits.

Elg Baylor, Chamberlain Clash Today

The two greatest scorers in basketball — Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors — and Elgin Baylor of the Los Angeles Lakers — match outputs when the NBA teams collide this afternoon at 2:30 and Monday night at 8:30 in the Sports Arena.

The games are the final appearance of the season locally for the famed Wilt and the next-to-last outing for the Lakers. Only Cincinnati on March 11-12 remains on the Laker menu after the Warrior series.

CHAMBERLAIN, only in his second season of pro ball, holds virtually all the scoring records in the game and the ones he doesn't own belong to Elg.

Wilt and Baylor are the only players in NBA history to score more than 2000 points a season in successive years. Wilt is leading the league with a 37-point average. Elg, enjoying his greatest season, is close behind with 34 points per game.

BAYLOR HOLDS the fabulous one-game scoring mark of 71 points. Chamberlain at 7-2 and agile as a hurdler a foot shorter, holds all the rebounding marks, too.

Wilt is a remarkable athlete. Some have derived him as only being effective because of his size. But talk to most of his rivals throughout the league and they'll tell you how tough he is to stop.

Every game is a crucial for the Lakers now as they battle Cincinnati and Detroit for spots in the playoff.

IN PLAY-OFFS . . . North High's Saxon cagers, shown here with Coach Bill Woods, will meet The California High School of Whittier in the first game of the CIF "AAA" basketball elimination Tuesday in Whittier. The Saxons, second in Bay League play this year, wound up home season Friday night by dropping close game to their crosstown rivals from South High School. (Herald Photo)

Girls games are played at 3:30 and 4:30 p.m. daily and

American Little League to Begin Player Tryouts

The Torrance American Little League will begin three weeks of tryouts March 4 at the Seaside Field.

'Untouchables' Touched by The 'Beatables'

Second round games in the Stephen M. White Junior High Night Basketball League brought about some surprising results.

The Beatables nipped the Untouchables 40-38 thanks to the hot shooting of Holmes, Fortier, and Ogden.

The one-two punch of Coloma and Algeria proved to be too much for Mike Mahon's Celtics, as the Globetrotters rolled to a 38-24 victory.

Jimmy Esparaz's Ambassadors kept their record unblemished as they nipped the Dukes 32-30 on a last second bucket by Louie Gonzales. Gonzales' jump shooting kept the Ambassadors in the lead as he pumped through 18 points.

Jim Lewis' Slowtrotters behind at half-time 19-12, overcame their opponents and walked away from the Warriors 48-35. John Torrico kept the nets jumping as he swished in 23 points.

County Votes Lomita Street Parking Limit

Supervisor Burton W. Chace said that due to the increasing amount of traffic, parking is now prohibited on the west side of Oak Street from Pacific Coast Highway to Lomita Boulevard in Lomita.

Chace said the majority of the residents on Oak Street support this new restriction since congestion often occurs on this segment during peak hours because of the limited width of the street.

The Los Angeles County Road Department will place "no-parking" signs along the west side of the street very soon, Chace said.

Members of last year's minor and farm leagues and newcomers will be looked over March 4 for fielding, March 11 for batting, and March 18 for pitching and catching.

In accordance with previous practices, it was announced that all boys who attend two of the three sessions will be placed on some team. The league will consist of six major clubs, eight minor clubs, and as many farm teams as necessary.

The traditionally powerful league looks to another banner season. Last year the Torrance American Little League through several one sided shutouts, were nosed out of one run by the Lakewood team which went to the final round of four at Williamsport, Pa.

It was announced that there are several managerial spots still open in the minor and farm leagues.

Scouts will be selling tickets as the complete proceeds from sales go to Scouting.
